

Dear Patron of the Arts,

Since 1996, the Volusia Civic Ballet, Inc. (VCB) has produced the magical family favorite, The Nutcracker Ballet. Each December close to 4,000 people eagerly fill the theater, in beautiful Daytona Beach, to enjoy this cherished production. Our audience comes from all surrounding counties and beyond - from all corners of the state and nation!

The VCB is a true gem of this community, producing first-rate cultural and outreach events, and giving back to our supporters. Over the years, the VCB has provided thousands of complimentary Nutcracker tickets to children and their families. We have partnered with Volusia County Title One schools, Food Brings Hope, PACE Center for Girls, Volusia County Foster Care Services, and other outstanding area non-profit organizations to bring the world of dance to our community. The VCB is proud to provide complimentary dance classes and intensives, dance studio scholarships, and dance clothing and shoes.

The remarkable accomplishments of the Volusia Civic Ballet are made possible entirely through the generous support of our volunteers and sponsors. Thousands of volunteer hours are critical to each Nutcracker season. We rely on patrons, and community partners to help us create magic for our beloved community. Even during the height of the pandemic, through community support, we were able to safely and successfully present a live and truly unique Nutcracker production to keep the time-honored tradition alive.

This year, Volusia Civic Ballet is excited to present our 2023 Nutcracker Ballet. There are many ways in which you can be a part of this amazing production. Do you have an item or a service that you can donate for the Silent Auction? Donations of goods and services are auctioned off each year to help us expand our outreach to many underserved members of our community, as well as ensure that the tradition of the Nutcracker continues to grace the stage for years to come.

You can join the ranks of our highest-caliber Corporate Sponsors who make monetary donations to support our mission. A variety of contribution levels will help you select just the right donation for your company! Our Nutcracker performances are also a great way to reward your hard-working staff this Holiday Season. We offer specially priced group tickets in the seating area of your choice. Make the Nutcracker your holiday party!

All sponsorships and donations are tax deductible to the extent allowable by the IRS code. The Nutcracker is a fantastic opportunity for you to showcase your community involvement. We look forward to following up with you soon and hope you will join us at the show!

Sincerely,

VCB Executive Board of Directors

is exempt from the payment of Florida sales and use tax on real property rented, transient rental property rented, tangible personal property purchased or rented, or services purchased.

Important Information for Exempt Organizations

DR-14
R. 01/18

1. You must provide all vendors and suppliers with an exemption certificate before making tax-exempt purchases. See Rule 12A-1.038, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).
2. Your Consumer's Certificate of Exemption is to be used solely by your organization for your organization's customary nonprofit activities.
3. Purchases made by an individual on behalf of the organization are taxable, even if the individual will be reimbursed by the organization.
4. This exemption applies only to purchases your organization makes. The sale or lease to others of tangible personal property, sleeping accommodations, or other real property is taxable. Your organization must register, and collect and remit sales and use tax on such taxable transactions. Note: Churches are exempt from this requirement except when they are the lessor of real property (Rule 12A-1.070, F.A.C.).
5. It is a criminal offense to fraudulently present this certificate to evade the payment of sales tax. Under no circumstances should this certificate be used for the personal benefit of any individual. Violators will be liable for payment of the sales tax plus a penalty of 200% of the tax, and may be subject to conviction of a third-degree felony. Any violation will require the revocation of this certificate.
6. If you have questions about your exemption certificate, please call Taxpayer Services at 850-488-6800. The mailing address is PO Box 6480, Tallahassee, FL 32314-6480.

List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
